

Medical problems in pregnancy: optimising inter-specialty care

Friday 1 December 2023

09.00 – 09.30	Registration, tea and coffee
Session 1: Pre-existing Medical Problems Chair: Dr Claire Alexander
09.30 – 09.40	Welcome Mr Mike McKirdy President, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow
09.40 - 10.05	Pre-existing Cardiac Disease Dr Lorna Swan , Consultant Cardiologist, Scottish Adult Congenital Cardiac Service (SACCS)
10.05 – 10.30	Chronic Kidney Disease Dr Kate Wiles , Consultant Obstetric Physician, Royal London Hospital
10.30 – 10.55	Perinatal Mental Health and Suicide Prof Marian Knight , Professor of Maternal and Child Population Health, University of Oxford
10.55 – 11.15	Panel discussion
11.15 - 11.30	Tea and coffee break
Session 2: Updates in Obstetrics Medicine Chair: Professor Mark Strachan
11.30 – 11.55	Haematology Dr Catherine Bagot
11.55 – 12.20	Rheumatology Dr Iona Thorne , Consultant Physician North West London Integrated Care System
12.20 – 12.45	The use of biologics in pregnancy Prof Catherine Nelson-Piercy , Professor of Obstetric Medicine and Consultant Obstetric Physician St. Thomas' Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
12.45 – 13.00	Panel discussion
13.00 – 13.45	Lunch
Keynote Lecture Chair: Dr Marie Freel
13.45 – 14.30	Lessons from Maternity Investigations

	Professor James Walker , Clinical Director of Maternity Investigations at Health Services Investigation Branch
Session 3: Acute Clinical Presentations and Panel Discussion Chair: Professor Andrew Gallagher
14.30 – 16.00	3 Case Presentations and panel discussion Speakers Dr Alexandra Viner Dr Sarah Murray Dr Emily Frier Discussion panel Catherine Nelson Piercy Rebecca Northridge Arlene Wise Carolyn Chiswick Mireia Moragas Rahat Maitland
Inter-specialty Care in Practice Chair: Dr Corinne Love
16.00 – 16.25	Scottish Perinatal Network perspective/ signpost Dr Tara Fairley (Aberdeen)
16.30	Close of meeting – Dr Corinne Love