| raining. Specialist dation | NHS WI has established handover meetings twice daily for medical and surgical teams which have been recognised as an ideal training opportunity for junior doctors in training. Medical undergraduates are encouraged to attend also. In the out of hours period, undergraduates have the opportunity to accompany enhanced role GPs and Clinical Specialist Nurses and attend A&E, to observe the provision of out of hours healthcare in the remote and rural location. Undergraduates are accommodated in dedicated accommodation close to the hospital site and adjacent to the junior doctor accommodation for additional peer support. | |
| to web 319 linics | Undergraduates are expected to attend these sessions and light refreshments are provided. Additionally, the medicine consultant team have established regular access to web streamed monthly evening medical update lectures from the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh which are well attended locally and supported by WIHB with light refreshments. In Psychiatry, undergraduate students have the opportunity to travel to peripheral clinics in Uist and Barra with their supervising consultant for outpatient clinics and to shadow the community mental health staff in remote and rural locations. | |
| holistic medical, e of | Although there are consultants nominated as clinical supervisor for student placements, the multidisciplinary team are involved in providing teaching, allowing students a holistic view of healthcare provision in a remote and rural setting. Multidisciplinary teaching sessions are held regularly at Western Isles Hospital on a fortnightly basis, including mortality/morbidity meetings and departmental teaching sessions. A new initiative in 18-19 was the establishment of the Acute Care Forum - a monthly meeting in which medical staff, medical students and senior clinicians participate and discuss issues relating to acute care. Sessions have included Realistic Medicine, an action plan for acute care of detriorating patients, and an OPAH inspection report. | AND THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPER |
| atry | The NHS Western Isles continues to offer medical undergraduate training placements for University of Aberdeen students (placements in Medicine, Surgery and Psychiatry available). These placements are based at Western Isles Hospital and in 5 General Practices. | |
| | General use of Medical ACT funding within health hourd are for incompany of the characters. | d) |
